However, Xerox cannot remove this search menu, as it is part of their punch out catalog.

6. When you click on the link to each copier it will bring up the description of the copier along with everything that is included in the 36-month lease. There are also links to Virtual Demos, Product Brochure, and Detailed Specifications. The price that is given is the monthly lease price for each copier.

You will also include the Note to all Suppliers information as indicated above. Once again, for overages a separate Blanket Order will need to be created.

14. A separate Blanket Order must be created for each fiscal year to cover copier overages for this machine. Please include the copier serial number and lease PO number as a part of the description on the Blanket Order.
