

Deadline: Tuition Rebate forms are due by 5pm on the last Friday of the semester (during finals week).

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

TUITION REBATES FOR CERTAIN UNDERGRADUATES

Students are required to apply for the rebate on forms provided by the institution prior to receiving their baccalaureate degrees and to keep the institution apprised of their addresses for at least 30 days after their graduation date.

You should be completing degree requirements for the current term in order to submit a Tuition Rebate Form. Students who do not meet degree requirements for the current term will need to submit a new Tuition Rebate Form at the time of graduation.

Section 54.0065 of the Education Code of Texas authorizes a tuition rebate for certain students who have received a baccalaureate degree from a Texas public university.

Name _____

SamID _____

Please read the eligibility requirements on the Rules page to see if you qualify for this rebate, then complete the information below.

Did you enroll for the first time as a beginning freshman in a Texas public institution of higher education in the Fall, 1997, or later? Yes _____ No _____

If no, you do not qualify for the rebate.

Have you been a resident of Texas and entitled to pay resident tuition at all times while pursuing the degree? Yes _____ No _____

If no, you do not qualify for the rebate.

If yes to both questions above, submit this completed form via email to registrar@shsu.edu. Forms will NO LONGER be accepted in person. The Registrar's Office will review your transcript to determine if you qualify for the rebate based on the total attempted semester hours. The paperwork will then be forwarded to the Student Accounts Office for residency verification. If you qualify, based on residency, the rebate check will be processed according to the Education Code of Texas. The Registrar's Office will notify you via email of approval or denial after degrees have been posted.

SECTION 54.0065 OF THE TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

Eligible Students:

To be eligible for rebates under this program, students must meet ALL of the following conditions:

1. they must have enrolled for the first time in an institution of higher education in the fall 1997 semester or later, and
2. they must have received a baccalaureate degree from a Texas public university, and
3. they must have been a resident of Texas, must have attempted all coursework at a Texas public institution of higher education, and entitled to pay resident tuition at all times while pursuing the degree, and
4. they must have attempted no more than three hours in excess of the minimum number of semester credit hours required to complete the degree under the catalog under which they graduated. Hours attempted include transfer credits, course credit earned exclusively by examination, courses that are dropped after the official census date, for-credit developmental courses, optional internship and cooperative education courses, and repeated courses. Courses dropped for reasons that are determined by the institution to be totally beyond the control of the student shall not be counted, and
5. the first nine hours of credit earned by examination (credit earned on the basis of AP courses, CLEP or credit granted for high SAT or ACT scores) does not count as hours attempted.

Responsibilities of Students:

Students desiring to qualify for tuition rebates are solely responsible for enrolling only in courses that will qualify them for the rebate.

A student who has transferred from another institution of higher education is responsible for providing to the institution awarding the degree official transcripts from all institutions attended by the student.
