Concurrent Enrollment Permission Form for International Students

SamID: _______________________________ Date (mm/dd/yyyy): __________________________
Last Name: _______________________________ First Name _______________________________
Major: _______________________________

Have you transferred any credits from a 2-year college? Yes / No
If yes how many? __________

Are you within 30 hours of graduation? Yes / No

In the semesters you plan to concurrently enroll:
  Do you plan to take any Distance Education Courses* at SHSU? Yes / No or at LSCC or the other school you have indicated below? Yes / No

*ATTENTION! F-1 International Students are only permitted to enroll in one distance education course each semester in order to satisfy full time requirements.

A distance education course is considered to be a course that is for the most part offered by electronic means and does not require the student’s physical attendance for classes, examination, or other purposes integral to completion of the class or a correspondence course.

Be careful when considering dropping courses in this situation. You do not want to end up with more than one distance education course in order to satisfy full time requirements for any given semester.
