STOCK THE PANTRY
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stock SHSU’s Campus Food Pantry as a part of the competition. SHSU regularly collects donations of non-perishable food items to distribute to SHSU students who express a need through MySAM. Items needed the most are foods, you as a college student, would like to eat. Each item donated will be worth 1 credit, but the following donated items will earn 5 credits, as they are the most desirable donations: cereal, peanut butter, jelly, complete microwavable meals (not frozen), mac ‘n’ cheese, canned tuna, canned chicken, soup (not ramen), canned/jarred fruit, pasta sauce, and cereal/granola/protein bars. • Organizations are encouraged to mobilize friends, faculty, and staff to donate items on behalf of your student organization, as any non-expired item donated in your organization’s name will count towards your total credits. • A minimum of 10 items must be donated to receive 50 points as an “Entry” into this portion of the competition. Spirit Competition points will be awarded to the organizations that earn the most credits for food donations. Food Donations must be turned in to LSC 110 on Monday, October 22, 2018 from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM. Expired food items will NOT count. 	POINTS AWARDED ENTRY: 50 pts 3rd PLACE: +50 pts 2nd PLACE: +100 pts 1st PLACE: +150 pts
SERVICE PROJECT
