Online Learning: Engaged Content Delivery & Innovative Assignments

Ricardo Montelongo
Paul Eaton
Department of Educational Leadership

#SHSUTLC18
Critical Digital Pedagogy

- Digital Pedagogy Lab
  - Online Learning is not a Correspondence Course
- Critical Digital Pedagogy
  - Relational Praxis; HUMAN CENTERED PRACTICES
  - Critical = Accounting for Power and Cultural Sustainability
    - Feminist Pedagogies (Dillard, Anazaldúa, hooks, Paris, Ladson-Billings)
    - Praxis (Freire)
    - Embodied Practices (Thompson)
Technological Pedagogical Practices (TPACK)

- High- & Low-Context Learning in Online Environments (Westbrook, 2014)
  - Types of interaction
  - Reliance on written text in online learning; anonymity
  - Visual and auditory
  - Cross-cultural communication
- Tools/Interaction/Pedagogy (Mishra & Koehler, 2006)
  - Student and faculty interaction with multimedia
    - Podcasts; Video; Popular Media
  - Technological Tools
    - LMS Tools
    - Web-based tools; apps (ex. Slack, Hypothes.is, Google+ Communities)
    - Social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, GroupMe) Technology, Engagement, & Innovation Used in Our Courses

Spotify - course playlists/mixtapes

Synchronous meetings - teaching diversity online study findings

Point-of-view cameras (ex. GoPro, 360fly) - immersive online experiences

Infographics - visual representations of learning

PechaKucha talks - concise, fast-paced presentations

Movies or Podcasts - flexibility in student approach to assignments

#SHSUTLC18
“The spirit is vulnerable and needs to be fed with tenderness and songs” (Joy Harjo).

HIED 5367 Songs of Inspiration

HIED 5360 Songs of the College Experience 1976 - 2018
Synchronous Meetings

Scheduling Meetings

Working Around Student Schedules

Students desire Synchronicity

#SHSUTLC18
Point of View Cameras & 360 Cameras

HIED 5365 video example (1:27 min) – Probation Floor: https://youtu.be/DER_8XN86W8

(start at 0:30 mark)
Infographics

http://piktochart.com/

https://infogr.am/
Google+ Community Board

Multimedia functionality

Social media layout
Movies or Podcasts

In this example, students made a period movie to discuss the PechaKucha Talks

http://www.pechakucha.org/
Resources