Sam Houston State University Online Survey Results - Presidential Search Process March 2020

Word Cloud Visualization by Respondent Group
QUESTION / RESPONDENT GROUP	OVERALL	STUDENTS	FACULTY	STAFF/ADMINISTRATION	ALUMNI/COMMUNITY MEMBERS
QUESTION #1: Based upon your experience with SHSU, what are the most important professional experiences, qualifications, and personal qualities required of the new president?	change involved communication integrity support vision work teaching values kill community quality care understanding business public willing academic good level ability education open growth important leadership leader decision leadership leader torure listen understand people making focus background personal person research transparency	academic leadership people business life involved listen change understand open willing person qualityeducation body sure friendly understanding program important care love school ability diversity Community best personal houston good minded growth department presonable	integrity communicate important levelleadership person levelleadersupport process backgroundresearchdecision goodacademicskill program educationvision lenure future fund value teaching transparency professor communication quality people understanding diversity making member service honesty successful appropriates	culture communicate professional ability people budget integrity support ability people budget value open leadership vision change understanding good change understanding good business academic willing level strong community focus leader education important decision understand workemployee quality involved background personal communication minded management	diversity community good understand quality future academic relations support academic relations decision education strong grow skill eaderability service professional business people leadership working communicate
QUESTION #2: What are the opportunities and challenges facing the new president?	medicine increase department people education better building higherlack program culture parking enrollment great medical Change fundwork medical Change fundwork houston support growth academic online area resonantly population create continue diversity communication financial improve	department organization current population continue star population continue increase change expand best diversity parking education area construction big better houston community building financial good people focus improve fund errollment keeping bessele great huntsville graduate	administration Medicalmaintain academic support potential culture enrollment mission focus fund program trust education change quality years higher community respect great increase administrator building diversity demography	administration. medicine reorganize nuntsville population Community parking market culture SUPPORT increase academic enrollment higher create people Change lack current process low growth program online fund trust recent continue communication education diversity department amp susping employee leadershipbalance efficiency	constructionefficiency important large improvekeeping diversity people great current population feel medical fund clear create amp start trust Continue. culture maintain Community medicine hunts ville growth parking building change enrollment education leadership lack financial dealing administration program balance presence employee
QUSTION #3: What are the most attractive features of SHSU and its surrounding communities and how could they be used to attract the best candidate?	woodland attractive diversity place feeluniversity, education work hours attractive diversity place feeluniversity, education work hours will estaff features family growstudent citybest attract acculty houston close and attract acculty houston close and support great small town make growth beautiful people friendly program candidate environment culture	environment Justice growth candidate feature attractive building place close town faculty class houston small program family sam student feel love great hunts ville city best riendly criminal staff beautiful grownistory potential potential area people opportunity professor education	woodland huntsville cityplace growth staff houston great diversity proximity student texas work program faculty close focus live people faculty attractive town growarea iving feelfriendly university major contents opportunity teaching quality education population generation	employee proximity place Close attractive family nouston growth support feel university great culture growstudent staff big history area citysmall beautiful beauty faculty town peoplemake location odland work program continue opportunity continue candidate	medical located education attractive place enjoytown growstaff arts culture town growstaff arts growth nunts ville beautiful major area student university history houston work features friendly close city small texas bigfeel great great continue faculty woodland experience

Notes on Online Survey Results

- Online survey results based upon the following approximate number of respondents:
 - o Overall (n=634)
 - o Students (n=294)
 - o Faculty (n=195)
 - Staff/Administration (n=236)
 - o Alumni/Community Members (n=102)
- Word cloud visualizations generated using common respondent terms identified by qualtrics